

The University of the South Pacific
ECONOMICS

.... The Process by which WEALTH is created, POVERTY is alleviated, and RESOURCES are used to SATISFY individual and collective NEEDS

A degree in Economics is often a passport to a wide range of interesting and well-paying careers. USP graduates in Economics are found throughout the Pacific region in Government, Reserve Banks, Development Banks, Regional and UN Organisations, Teaching at the University and Secondary School level, and in the Private Sector.

We provide a special focus on Environmental and Resource dimensions of Pacific and Small Island Development

To find out more about studying Economics at USP, simply write to:

Head of Department
Economics Department
The University of the South Pacific
Private Mail Bag
Suva, FIJI

or call: (679) 3212547 or 3212568

or fax: (679) 3270069 or 3301487

or email: singh_js@usp.ac.fj or chand_b@usp.ac.fj