The Journal of Pacific Studies

JPacS is an internationally refereed journal produced twice a year by the School of Social and Economic Development, the University of the South Pacific. USP is a regional institution serving Cook Islands, Fiji, Kiribati, Marshall Islands, Nauru, Niue, Samoa, Solomon Islands, Tokelau, Tonga, Tuvalu and Vanuatu.

Our focus is broad. Our intention is to be a significant area studies journal for the Pacific region. Our Pacific includes not only all member countries of the university, but all island nations of the Pacific. We also have an interest in things in other parts of the world that affect us or are relevant to us.

SSED is multidisciplinary though its focus is the Social Sciences as they relate to development in the region. We accept articles in a wide range of areas:

~ Accounting and Financial Management ~ Banking and Finance ~
Business Administration ~ Business Studies ~ Community
Development ~ Economics ~ Environmental Studies ~ Geography ~
Governance ~ Hospitality ~ History ~ Industrial Relations ~ Land
Use Planning ~ Management ~ Marine Affairs ~ Politics ~
Population Studies ~ Public Administration ~ Real Estate ~
Social Policy ~ Social Services ~ Sociology ~ Tourism ~
Youth in Development Work ~

We invite submission of papers of about 8000 words in length.
Shorter Research Notes are also welcome.

Inquiries, proposals, papers and research notes should be addressed to:
