

Fijian Studies

A Journal of Contemporary Fiji

Special Issue Governance

Volume 2, No. 2

November 2004

Articles

Introduction

Stewart Firth
Kate Hannan

From Homo Civicus to Homo Politicus: Civil Society, Civic Education and Democratic Governance In Fiji. Case Study: The UNDP-Fiji Parliament Civic Education Initiative

Steven Ratuva

How Modern was Speight's Coup? The Case of Naloto

Anare Tuitoga

Spectres of the Neo-Liberal State and the (Im)possibilities of Democracy

Ashwin Raj

Governance Challenges for Pacific Island States

Graham Hassall

From Campus to Newsroom in the South Pacific: Governance and the Quest for a Professional Journalism Ethos

David Robie
Shailendra Singh

Reflection

How Significant is the Colonial History of the Pacific?

Ian C. Campbell

Literature Review

The Art of Governance: A Review of Discussions of Governance in Pacific Island Countries

Kate Hannan

Book Reviews

ISSN 1728-7456

Published by Fiji Institute of Applied Studies