

Fijian Studies

A Journal of Contemporary Fiji

Vol. 3 No. 1

May 2005

Articles

Returns from Fiji National Provident Fund: Accounting Myth vs. Economic Reality	Michael White	1
Subsidy Dependence and Financial Sustainability in Development Banks: The Case of the Fiji Development Bank	M. D. Sharma Uriam Timiti	21
Privatisation of the Government Shipyard and Public Slipways – Some Lessons	Jashwini J. Narayan	35
Culture and Entrepreneurship: An Exploratory Essay	Doraswamy Rao	57
Fiji's Public-Private Sector Investment, Policy, Institutions and Economic Growth: Evidence from Time Series Data	Rukmani Gounder	87
Student Ethnicity and Academic Performance: First-Year University Accounting Education	Arvind Patel Reema Patel	111
Diagnostic Test for Mathematics Students at USP	Ulhas J. Dixit Muni V. Reddy	125

Research Notes

Sairusi Nabogibogi	Brij V Lal	131
Fuel Pricing in Fiji	Gyaneshwar Rao	139

Talanoa

Bahut Julum : Reflections on the use of Fiji Hindi	Brij V Lal	153
Violence in Fiji: Presentations from a Panel Discussion on Violence in Fiji	Vijay Naidu, Moses Driver, Susana Tuisawau, Prue Rouse, Daniel Urai, Gunasegran Goundar	159

Book Reviews

A Wake-Up Call for Pacific Journalism Mekim Nius: South Pacific Media, Politics and Education by David Robie	Shailendra Singh	185
Stolen Worlds: Fijiindian Fragments by Kavita Nandan	Larry Thomas	189
Tears in Paradise by Rajendra Prasad	Avinash Kumar	195
Introductory Commercial Studies by Ganesh Chand and Veer Varma.	Chandra P Dulare Ashwin V. Nand	198