

Fijian Studies

A Journal of Contemporary Fiji

---

Vol. 3 No. 2

November 2005

---

Special Issue: Gender Issues in Fiji

Guest Editor: Jacqueline Leckie

Articles

Articulated Cultures: Militarism and Masculinities in Fiji during the Mid 1990s	Teresia K. Teaiwa	201
The Church Versus Women's Push for Change: the Case of Fiji	Eta Varani-Norton	223
Understanding Poverty from a Gender Perspective	Priya D. Chattier	249
Violence, Agency and Freedom of Movement: Issues Emerging out of the Lata Sisters' Disappearance	Susanna Trnka	277
Making a Difference Where it Counts: A Case of Activism, Advocacy and Action-Research with Two Women's Groups in Fiji	Eci Nabalarua	295
The Embodiment of Gender and Madness in Colonial Fiji	Jacqueline Leckie	311
Gender, Health Inequality, and Hidden Healers in Rural Fiji	Barbara Herr Harthorn	337
A Tale of Two Mothers: Colonial Constructions of Indian and Fijian Maternity	Vicki Luker	357
Wild and Domesticated: Matalobau Foods, Gender, and Rituals	Diane Michalski Turner	375
From Little Girl to Young Woman: The Menarche Ceremony in Fiji	Marijke Sniekers	397
Paradise Revisited: Women's Writing from Fiji	Gina Wisker	425
Dialogue: Rights of Sexual Minorities	Jacqueline Leckie Akuila Yabaki	451
Gender Bibliography	Jacqueline Leckie	455